

Bristol Mortimers burial index

The following is an extract made of the Mortimer surname in burial registers from all Anglican churches in Bristol. The parishes with the most Mortimer entries is Bristol St Mary Redcliffe, followed by Bristol Temple, both in the south side of the city, south of the river Avon. Research shows that members of the Mortimer family settled in Bristol by at least the late 1500s, with an origin perhaps in South Gloucestershire, in the Severn River valley.
